2. Cont de Trader

2.3. Compania va specifica, de asemenea, suma maxima a levierului disponibila pentru Contul de Trader. La inregistrarea contului ca si Cont de Trader, Compania va reduce in mod automat efectul levierului pentru un astfel de cont la levierul maxim permis de Companie in momentul inregistrarii contului. Levierul maxim poate fi revizuit periodic de catre Companie. Compania poate be reviewed from time to time by the Company. The Company may reduce maximum leverage for existing Trader Accounts after notifying respective Traders about such reduction, and leaving reasonable amount of time after such notification for Traders to reduce the volume of positions opened in their Accounts accordingly.

2.4. Minimum amount of funds, maximum leverage level, available financial instruments, the minimum and maximum value of the Trader's Commission and any trading restrictions that the Company puts in place for Trader Accounts will be duly disclosed in Trader Account Conditions listed at the Company's web site.

2.5. As a result of registering a trading account as a Trader Account, the Trader Account is assigned a Trader's Contract Number and a personal page with the Trader's profile containing information on the Trader's Commission defined by the Trader, key trading statistics of the Trader Account(s), and free text information that the Trader is willing to fill in and make visible to Investors. In order to qualify as a “Public Trader Account”, a Trader Account should have the information in Trader profile filled in with relevant information such as description of the trading strategy employed by the Trader, name of an Expert Advisor and indicators used, credentials of the Trader etc, so as to enable the Investors to make a reasonably informed decision with respect to the Trader Account.

2.6. The following are specifically not allowed to be used as components of the Trader profile:

reduce efectul maxim de levier pentru Conturile de Trader existente doar dupa ce a notificat pe Traderii respectivi despre acest lucru si a acordat un termen rezonabil dupa expedierea notificarii pentru Traderi in ceea ce priveste reducerea numarului de pozitii deschise in Conturile lor.

2.4. Valoarea minima a fondurilor, nivelul maxim al efectului de levier, instrumentele financiare disponibile, valoarea minima si maxima a Comisionului Traderului si orice restrictii de tranzactionare pe care Compania le pune in aplicare pentru Conturile de Trader vor fi specificate in Conditile privind Conturile de Trader afisate pe site-ul Web al Companiei.

2.5. Ca rezultat al inregistrarii contului de tranzactionare ca si Cont de Trader, Contului de Trader i se atribue Numar de Contract al Traderului si o pagina personala cu profilul Traderului care contine informatii despre Comisionul Traderului definit de acesta, statistici principale de tranzactionare ale Contului Traderului si informatii pe care Traderul este urmeaza sa le completeze pentru ca acestea sa fie vizibile investitorilor. Pentru a putea fi calificat drept “Cont Public al Traderului”, Contul de Trader trebuie sa contina informatii relevante in profilul Traderului, cum ar fi descrierea strategiei de tranzactionare utilizate, numele unui Expert Advisor si indicatorii utilizati, acreditările Traderului etc., pentru a permite investitorilor sa ia o decizie in ceea ce priveste Contul de Trader.

2.6. Urmatoarele informatii nu trebuie sa faca parte din Profilul Traderului:

- direct or indirect promotion of 3rd party companies and services;
- direct or indirect promotion of Trader's offerings that are not related to the Service;
- use of foul language;
- offensive language in any form, including but not limited to defamatory references to social, racial, national, linguistic or religious differences or issues.

2.7. The Company reserves the right to amend any parts of Trader Profile not consistent with the above, and change the alias name of any Trader Account, at its own discretion, in a unilateral manner without being obliged to provide any reasons to respective Traders.

2.8. To close the Trader Account, the Client is required to make a request via the Client Login. When making such request, all trading positions must be closed and all pending orders must be removed from the Trader Account. Any remaining balances in the Trader Account can be withdrawn by the Trader upon the completion of closing procedures.

2.9. Closing of the Trader Account results to automatic disconnection from all Investor Accounts connected to it, blocking of the Trader Account from being connected to Investor Accounts, and blocking of the Trader Account from executing trading transactions. Also, closing of the Trader Account removes Account from the Traders' Rankings. Closed Trader Accounts cannot be used for individual trading. Restoring a closed Trader Account is not possible.

acreditari, titluri, premii, testimoniale etc, care ar putea influenta negativ parerile si deciziile Investitorului;

- promovarea directa sau indirecta a companiilor si a serviciilor tertelor persoane;
- promovarea directa sau indirecta a ofertelor Traderului care nu au legatura cu Serviciul;
- utilizarea limbajului nepotrivit;
- limbaj ofensator sub orice forma, care ar include, dar fara a se limita la referinte defaimatoare despre diferente sau probleme sociale, rasiale, nationale, lingvistice sau religioase.

2.7. Compania isi rezerva dreptul de a modifica, la propria discretie si in mod unilateral, orice parte a Profilului Traderului care nu este in concordanta cu prevederile de mai sus si de a modifica numele de alias al oricarui Cont de Trader, fara obligatia de a prezenta Traderilor motivele acestei actiuni.

2.8. Pentru a inchide Contul de Trader, clientul trebuie sa faca o solicitare prin Login-ul Clientului. In momentul solicitarii, toate pozitile de tranzactionare trebuie sa fie inchise, iar toate ordinele in asteptare trebuie sa fie sterse din Contul de Trader. Eventualele solduri ramase in contul Traderului pot fi retrase de catre trader dupa finalizarea proceselor de inchidere.

2.9. Inchiderea Contului de Trader duce la deconectarea automata de la toate conturile de Investitori conectate la acesta, blocarea Contului de Trader in ce priveste conectarea la Conturile de Investitor si blocarea Contului de Trader in ce priveste executarea tranzactiilor. De asemenea, inchiderea Contului de Trader elimina contul din Clasamentul Traderilor. Conturile de Trader inchise nu pot fi utilizate pentru tranzactii individuale. Restabilirea unui Cont de Trader inchis nu este posibila.

3. Investor Account

3.1. A trading account can be registered as an Investor Account via the Client Login, provided that there are no open positions on such account. One Investor Account may simultaneously operate with one Trader Account only. Connecting the Investor Account to the Trader Account is only available within one account type (or identical account types in terms of trading conditions). In case the maximum leverage of the Investor Account exceeds the maximum leverage of the Trader Account, the Company will automatically reduce the leverage of the Investor Account to the level of the Trader Account.

3.2. An Investor is getting connected to the Trader Account via the Client Login by specifying the code of the Trader's Contract Number, to which the Investor is willing to connect his/her account. During the process of connecting the Investor Account to the Trader Account, Investor is shown the applicable Trader's Commission to which the Investor has to explicitly agree to the amount of such Commission to be able to proceed with the connection.

3.3. The Company has the right to automatically revoke the Investor Status of the Investor Account in case of multiple failed attempts to replicate a trading transaction from the connected Trader Account due to insufficient funds in the Investor Account, provided that such Investor Account also doesn't have any open positions.

4. Replications of transactions

4.1. Replication of trading transaction represents proportional copying of trading

3.1. Un cont de tranzactionare poate fi inregistrat ca si Cont de Investitor prin intermediul Login-ului de Client, cu conditia sa nu existe pozitii deschise pe acest cont. Un Cont de Investitor poate functiona simultan cu un singur Cont de Trader. Conectarea Contului de Investitor la Contul de Trader este posibila numai intr-un singur tip de cont (sau tipuri de cont identice din punct de vedere al conditiilor de tranzactionare). In cazul in care levierul maxim al Contului de Investitor depaseste levierul maxim al Contului de Trader, compania va reduce automat levierul Contului de Investitor la nivelul Contului de Trader.

3.2. Un Investitor se conecteaza la Contul de Trader prin intermediul Login-ului de Client prin specificarea codului din Numarul Contractului de Trader, la care Investitorul vrea sa-si conecteze contul. In timpul procesului de conectare a Contului de Investitor la Contul de Trader, investitorului i se afiseaza Comisionul Traderului, la care Investitorul trebuie sa accepte in mod explicit cuantumul acestui Comision pentru a putea continua conectarea.

3.3. Compania are dreptul de a revoca automat Statusul Investitorului de la Contul de Investitor, in cazul unor incercari multiple esuate de a replica o tranzactie din contul de trader conectat, din cauza fondurilor insuficiente in Contul Investitorului, cu conditia ca acel Cont de Investitor sa nu aiba pozitii deschise.

4. Replicarea tranzactiilor

4.1. Replicarea tranzactiei reprezinta copierea proportionala a operatiunilor de operations from a Trader Account to a connected Investor Account, taking into consideration the Replication Ratio set by the Investor when connecting to the Trader Account. For newly connected Investor Accounts, replication involves only those trading orders that were executed in the Trader Account after the connection with an Investor Account has been established. Any open positions and pending orders in the Trader Account are not replicated into the Investor Account at the moment of the Investor Account getting connected to the Trader Account.

tranzactionare din Contul de Trader in Contul de Investor conectat, tinand cont de Rata de Replicare stabilita de Investitor in momentul conectarii la Contul de Trader. Pentru Conturile de Investor nou conectate, replicarea implica numai acele ordine de tranzactionare care au fost executate in Contul de Trader dupa ce a fost stabilita conexiunea cu Contul de Investor. Orice pozitii deschise si ordine in asteptare in Contul de Trader nu sunt replicate in Contul Investitorului in momentul in care Contul de Investor se conecteaza la Contul de Trader.

4.2. The default value of the Replication Ratio is set at 100%. During the process of connecting an Investor Account to a Trader Account, the Investor can change the Replication Ratio from the default value. The Company reserves the right to restrict, at its own discretion, the possibility of changing the value of the Replication ratio by an Investor.

4.2. Valoarea implicita a Ratei de Replicare este setata la 100%. In timpul procesului de conectare a Contului de Investor la Contul de Trader, Investitorul poate modifica Rata de Replicare la valoarea implicita. Compania isi rezerva dreptul de a restrictiona, la discretia sa, posibilitatea de schimbare a valorii Ratei de Replicare de catre Investitor.

4.3. The formula for calculating the volume of replicated transactions in the Investor Account is as follows:

4.3. Formula de calcul al volumului de tranzactii replicate in Contul Investitorului este urmatoarea:

$$V_{inv} = Ratio(\%) \times \frac{Equity_{inv}}{Equity_{trader}} \times V_{trader}$$

$$V_{inv} = Ratio(\%) \times \frac{Equity_{inv}}{Equity_{trader}} \times V_{trader}$$

Unde

Where

V_{inv} – volumul tranzactiilor replicate in Contul de Investor;

V_{inv} – the volume of a replicated trading transaction in the Investor Account;

V_{trader} – the volume of the original trading transaction in the Trader Account;

V_{trader} – volumul tranzactiilor originale in Contul de Trader;

$Equity_{inv}$ – the amount of equity in the Investor Account at the moment of replicating a trading transaction;

$Equity_{inv}$ – suma capitalului din Contul de Investor la momentul replicarii unei tranzactii;

$Equity_{trader}$ – the amount of equity in the Trader Account at the moment of replicating a trading transaction;

$Equity_{trader}$ – suma capitalului din Contul de Trader la momentul replicarii unei tranzactii;

Ratio(%)– Replication Ratio.

Ratio(%)– Rata de Replicare.

4.4. The resulting volume of a replicated trading transaction, calculated according to the above formula, is rounded down to two decimals. If the amount of equity in the Investment Account does not allow for replication of a trading transaction in full, then the volume of the replicated order will be scaled down according to the available equity in the Investment Account, so that the trading transaction could be executed. If the calculated volume of a replicated trade is less than 0.01 lot, then such volume is rounded up to 0.01 lot and is replicated in the Investor Account in all cases when such Investor Account has non-zero equity. In case of negative equity in the Investor Account, no transactions are replicated, yet the Investor Account still remains connected to the Trader Account.

4.4. Volumul rezultat al unei tranzactii replicate, calculat conform formulei de mai sus, este rotunjit la doua zecimale. Daca valoarea capitalului propriu din contul de investitii nu permite replicarea integrala a tranzactiei, atunci volumul ordinului replicat va fi redus in functie de fondurile disponibile in Contul de Investitor, astfel ca tranzactia sa poate fi executata. Daca volumul unei tranzactii replicate este mai mic de 0,01 lot, atunci acest volum este rotunjit pana la 0,01 lot si este replicat in Contul de Investitor in toate cazurile in care acest Investitor are un capital pozitiv. In cazul unui capital negativ in Contul Investitorului, nici o tranzactie nu este replicata, insa Contul de Investitor continua sa ramana conectat la Contul de Trader.

4.5. Whenever trading transactions are executed by the Trader, a notification message about all replicated orders on all connected Investor Accounts is sent to the Trader's trading platform. Each of the connected Investor Accounts is also sent a notification to their trading platforms about the execution of a replicated trading transaction. Replicated orders in the Investment Account carry a comment line that includes the originating Trader's Contract Number and order's ticket number for reference.

4.5. La fiecare executare a tranzactiilor de catre Trader, in platformele Traderilor se vor trimite mesaje despre toate ordinele replicate in Conturile de Investitor conectate. Pentru fiecare dintre Conturile de Investitori conectate, la fel, se trimite notificare in platformele de tranzactionare despre executarea tranzactiei replicate.

Ordinele replicate in Contul de Investitii includ o linie de comentarii care include Numarul Contractului de Trader comerciantului originar si numarul de ticket al ordinului pentru referinta.

4.6. Every replicated trading order in an Investment Account remains linked to a corresponding order in the Trader Account, and reflects any changes effected to the latter by the respective Trader, unless an Investor intervenes to amend any of the parameters of the replicated order. Any change to any of the parameters of a replicated order by an Investor results in automatic disconnection of this order from the Trader Account, so that said order is no longer affected by Trader's actions. The Trader and Investor are sent respective notices to their trading platforms in case of any such disconnections. Investor assumes full responsibility for managing (i.e. amending, monitoring, closing etc) all and any disconnected orders.

4.6. Orice ordin de tranzactionare replicat intr-un Cont de Investitii este legat de un

4.7. If an Investor decides to terminate the connection to a Trader Account, all replicated open positions and pending orders in the Investor Account become disconnected and are to be managed further on solely by the Investor. Both Trader and Investor are sent respective notices to their trading platforms. The Company will not be able to restore the replication of any disconnected orders or transactions.

5. Trader's Commission

5.1. For every closed profitable trade in the Investor Account resulting from replication of transactions in the connected Trader Account, a commission fee is charged from the Investor Account in favour of the Trader Account, in the amount of:

$$Comm = Profit * Fee(\%)$$

Comm – amount of the commission fee;

ordin corespunzator in Contul de Trader și reflecta orice modificari facute de Trader, cu exceptia cazului in care un Investitor intervine pentru a modifica oricare dintre parametrii ordinului replicat. Orice modificare a oricărui parametru al unui ordin replicat de catre un Investitor duce la deconectarea automata a acestui ordin de la Contul de Trader, astfel incat ordinul nu mai este afectat de actiunile Traderului. In aceste cazuri, Traderului si Investitorului li se transmit notificari in platformele de tranzactionare. Investitorul isi asuma toata raspunderea pentru gestionarea (adica modificarea, monitorizarea, inchiderea etc.) tuturor ordinelor deconectate.

4.7. Daca un Investitor decide sa anuleze conectarea la un Cont de Trader, toate pozitiile replicate deschise si ordinele in asteptare din Contul Investitorului se deconecteaza si urmeaza a fi gestionate ulterior numai de catre Investitor. Atat Traderului, cat si Investitorului li se trimit notificari respective in platformele lor de tranzactionare. Compania nu va putea restabili replicarea oricaror ordine sau tranzactii deconectate.

5. Comisionul Traderului

5.1. Pentru fiecare tranzactie inchisa cu profit in Contul Investitorului care rezulta din replicarea tranzactiilor in Contul Traderului conectat, se percepe o taxa de comision din Contul Investitorului in contul Traderului, în valoare de:

$$Comm = Profit * Fee(\%)$$

unde:

Comm – suma taxei de comision;

Profit – the profit made on the closed trade;

Fee(%) – Trader Commission rate set by the Trader and accepted by the Investor.

Profit – profitul obtinut din tranzactia inchisa;

Fee(%) – rata de Comision al Traderului stabilita de Trader si acceptata de Investor.

5.2. The commission fee for a trade is calculated based on the financial result of respective trade, regardless of whether the trade was closed within the replication mechanism, following a trading signal by the Trader, or by an Investor himself. The commission fee is charged against the Investor Account via a balance transaction carrying a memo: “cmsn lock for rep. #Investor order ticket”. Commission fee amounts charged from Investor Accounts are withheld and kept by the Company until the next settlement date as per Trader Account Conditions, and then credited to the respective Trader Accounts. Settlement is effected between the Investor Account and the Trader Account for the last accounting period, or for the period beginning from the moment when the Investor Account was connected to the Trader Account.

5.2. Taxa de comisionu pentru un o tranzactie se calculeaza in baza rezultatului financiar al tranzactiei respective, indiferent daca tranzactia a fost inchisa in cadrul mecanismului de replicare, de un semnal de tranzactionare al Traerului sau de catre insusi Investitorul. Taxa de comision se percepe din Contul Investitorului prin intermediul unei operatiuni de bilant care contine o notă: “cmsn lock for rep. #Investor order ticket”. Taxele de comision percepute din conturile Investitorilor sunt retinute si pastrate de Companie pana la urmatoarea data de decontare, conform Conditilor privind Contul de Trader, si sunt creditate apoi in conturile respective ale Traderilor.
